

On the 9th of June, at Surb Etchmiadzin Church in Tbilisi, at the end of the Divine Liturgy, under the leadership of the Head of the Diocese of the Armenian Apostolic Church in Georgia, His Grace Bishop Vazgen Mirzakhanyan, and His Eminence Archbishop Nathan Hovhannisyan, Director of the Publishing Department of the Mother See of Holy Etchmiadzin, a prayer for the repose of the souls of seven Georgian troops killed in an terrorist attack in Afghanistan was served.

Armenian believers living in Georgia take to heart and share grief with Georgian society. Expressing their condolences to bereaved families and the Georgia society, the Head of the Diocese of the Armenian Apostolic Church in Georgia, His Grace Bishop Vazgen Mirzakhanyan and His Eminence Archbishop Nathan Hovhannisyan, Director of the Publishing Department of the Mother See of Holy Etchmiadzin, called this fact a great loss

, as the young guys
gave their lives
for the sake of maintaining peace
in the fight against terrorism.
The fact that
among the dead
is mentioned
Giorgi
Adamov
shows
the unanimity
of the multinational Georgian society
in opposition
to evil
and the struggle for peace.

Counselor of RA Embassy to Georgia Levon Torgomyan attended the prayer for the repose of the souls.
