

This year 16 children of St. Movses Khorenatsi Kindergarten senior group of the “Hayrtun” Center at the Diocese of the Armenian Apostolic Church in Georgia will go to a public school. Fortunately, the ten from the kindergarten 16 graduates will receive education at Armenian school.

On the 19th of June, seven kindergarten students accompanied by their parents, under the leadership of St
. Movses Khorenatsi Kindergarten Headmistress and responsible for the educational department of the “Hayartun” Center at the Diocese of the Armenian Apostolic Church in Georgia Eugenia Markosyan, the coordinator and artistic director of the center Levon Chidilyan, the spiritual supervisor of the kindergarten Deacon Gevorg Antonyan, responsible for the technical department Valera Badalyan, visited Tbilisi Public School № 104, where the parents of seven students submitted applications and documents on entering of their children the first grade of this school.

The school Principal Irina Zhamkochyan and Almari Siradegyan .welcomed the representatives of the “Hayartun” Center and future first graders.

Future school students also met their future teacher Silva Kaloyan. The kids with big inspiration demonstrated their knowledge of the Armenian language , which caused contentment of teachers and the school leaders.

The following students of St. Movses Khorenatsi Kindergarten will enter Public School № 104 in 2013-2014 academic year:

1.

Elina Afyan

2.

Roman Hambardzumyan

3.

Manana Harutyunyan

4.

Iren Manoyan

5.

Julianna Sahakyan

6.

Marta Zeynalyan

7.

Anush Arushanyan

Vladimir Ghazaryan and Erik Tatevosyan will go to a Public Scholl № 132, Davit Kocharyan go to a Public Scholl № 103. Let’s wish a good luck to our future first graders.

//