

A group of men, including clergy and lay members, are seated in the pews of a church. They are dressed in formal attire, including clerical robes and a keffiyeh. The church interior features wooden pews, a wooden altar, and religious artwork on the walls.

---

1 / 1